Dear Family & Friends,

God certainly seems to be up to some amazing things at Auburn this semester! I thought you might enjoy a peek into a typical week in Chi Alpha to give you an idea of what's been going on.

Monday & Tuesday: Our seven student-led small groups meet these nights for worship, prayer, Bible study, accountability, and so much more! One of our groups is dedicated to reaching international students.

Wednesday: Between classes students share their faith to passersby from the Open Air Forum or talk with others on the concourse at the "Discussion Table".

Here I am carving a turkey at one of our potluck "Fellowship Dinners".

45 students from Auburn's Chi Alpha group met up with 100 others for Spring Retreat last month.

Thursday: At our main meeting we have intimate worship, relevant teaching, and fellowship. Some weeks we have a potluck "Fellowship Dinner" in place of our regular meeting as a way for new people to get involved and the group to grow closer. We have regularly had 4-12 new people a week.

Friday & Saturday: There's always something going on during the weekend. Whether it's all-night prayer, open mic night, games, or worship, students glorify God in their relationships with one another.

Sunday: After church in the morning, Sunday night we meet with our small group leaders for training, troubleshooting, and encouragement.

These are only a few of the activities going on with Chi Alpha. We also have morning prayer, retreats, summer mission trips, individual mentoring, staff meetings, and much more. Thank you for making all of this possible by your encouragement, prayer, and financial support!
